THE BOESHILL WALK

This is a lovely walk along quiet country roads with views over forest and farmland until joining with a section of the Ancient Way, with which it shares panoramic views over Lough Erne and its surrounds.

Walk Directions:

A-B Leaving the car park the route crosses the wooden footbridge turning right onto the former railway line. After ca. 700m the track joins a country road. Turning right here climb the hill to meet the Donegal Road. Turning left continue for ca. 350m and veer left onto a lane ending at a T-junction

B-C Turning right the walk crosses the Donegal Road and continues for ca. 2Km at the T-junction turn left. The route starts to climb revealing scenic views over Carrickrory and Lough Aghafoy on left. Take the next turn on your right continue forward when you will see a breath-taking view of Lough Erne on your right, continue on around the winding road admiring the low valley on your right with Lough Erne in the distance.

C-D The route continues to climb passing Farm sheds on your right you will find more beautiful views. Continue around the country lane for ca. ..., passing a quaint cottage on your left, continue on admiring the views passing and old time cottage on your right.

D-A Turning left the route follows the Cycling route R233 for ca. ?m before turning right onto the Lough Derg road back through Pettigo Village to the Termon Centre.
